Today's oil and gas lease sale in Salt Lake City drew about 40 protesters and news media coverage from KSL TV (NBC), the Salt Lake Tribune, Deseret News and KUER (NPR) Radio all of Salt Lake. The Keep it in the Ground protesters disrupted the auction with song. Salt Lake City Police officers escorted them from the room when they refused BLM staff requests to be silent. There were no arrests. The auction continued after the room was cleared. A reporter from the Deseret News reported that Victoria Ramos, the bidder for parcel UTU91541 lives in a homeless shelter. It was also reported that a professor from the University of Utah paid her bid in full with a cashier's check.
